Start pedaling...

...and experience Holy Island for yourself!

All routes cater for all abilities with no substantial climbs...unless you feel energetic and wish to tackle the hill up to South Stack! You may wish to go the whole-hog and cycle the whole way around the Island, or keep it short and sweet and do the shortest route... the choice is yours!

- Porth Dafarch Loop 9.8 miles (15.8 km)
- a leisurely cycle along the beautiful north end of the Holy Island. This route will take you approximately 1 hour to cycle.
- Trearddur Loop 12 miles (19.3 km)
- take in the stunning views of little alcoves along the coast road to Trearddur Bay. This route should take you approximately 1 hour 30 minutes to cycle.
- Four Mile Bridge Loop 16 miles (26 km)
- this route passes over Four Mile Bridge and takes you on to the mainland of Anglesey! This route should take you approximately 2 hours to cycle.
- Rhoscolyn Loop 20.2 miles (32.5 km)
- extend your cycle to the glorious area of Rhoscolyn and its beach hidden amongst the winding roads. This route should take you approximately 2 hours and 30 minutes to cycle.
